

- In the space provided, briefly explain the meaning of the following terms.

Marks
1

Intensive properties

A physical property of a substance such as density that does not depend on the amount of the substance present.