

Marks
2

- An aqueous solution of iron(III) nitrate is pale yellow/brown. Upon addition of three mole equivalents of potassium thiocyanate (KSCN) a bright red colour develops. Draw the metal complex responsible for the red colour, including any stereoisomers.

